BUTTERFLY BY EMA HARDESTY

Here are my little handprints,
For you to see today.

For like a little butterfly,
I like to run and play.

Someday just like a butterfly,
You'll have to set me free.

I'll spread my wings and fly away.
My beauty the world will see!

WITH Gratitude

The Butterfly Release would not happen without the help of a select group of individuals and business. HCP would like to offer a sincere thank you to the following:

TIME

BY UNKNOWN AUTHOR

Time cannot steal the treasures

That we carry in our hearts.

Nor ever dim the shining thoughts

Our cherished past imports

For the memories of the ones we loved

Still cast a gentle glow,

To grace our days and light
our paths

Wherever we may go.

BY TANYA LORD

The butterfly is nature's way of reminding us that there is hope in grief. When the caterpillar is no more, the butterfly exists in ultimate freedom and beauty.

When someone we love dies, we may care to remember that what is death to the caterpillar is life to the butterfly.

Reflection

UPON WINGS OF A BUTTERFLY BY ELIZABETH A. STRASMANN

My image a canvas
painted by time,
weary and tired
I've left it behind.

Upon wings of a butterfly
my essence now rides, dancing on breezes
as they pass by.

You'll see me sometimes on warm summer days.
Among Poppies and Asters
you can watch me play.

Refrain from your sorrow,
you mustn't weep
for sweet nectar
I now, shall eat.

Let's not say goodbye,
don't bid thee farewell,
I'll be in the garden
just resting a spell.
